Fantastic work shared from home:

We miss you a lot, but are enjoying learning and playing at home. We wanted to show you a video we made. Blake read 'The Enormous Turnip' for one of his reading tasks, we then decided to make clay models of the characters, paint them and make a stop frame animation (with Daddy's help).

We hope you like it. Turn the sound on because we narrate the story.

We hope we are all back at school very soon. We miss school, our teachers and friends. We hope you are all keeping safe and well.

Love from Willow and Blake

SCHOOLS REOPENING TOMORROW

Will be reopening. For one week and three days parents have been Struggling to provide their Children with a good education. This is one of the many reasons why they have decided to reopen.

Boris Johnson and the Queen of England met up today to discuss the matter of Coronavirus and Schools reopening. After a thorough discussion they have now concluded that from tomorrow, Schools

"We are sure that to the nation it will be a shock but it must be done now." Officials have made this quick decision so children can reopen their minds to education.

Willow's April fool's day joke newspaper report – if only it were true!

Fantastic effort, Ethan W!

Ethan has a diary that he writes in everyday about the activities he's done, he wrote this page all by himself. He wanted to share these photos with you. Thank you for coming back to him, it's made his day, he's missing school. Take Care.

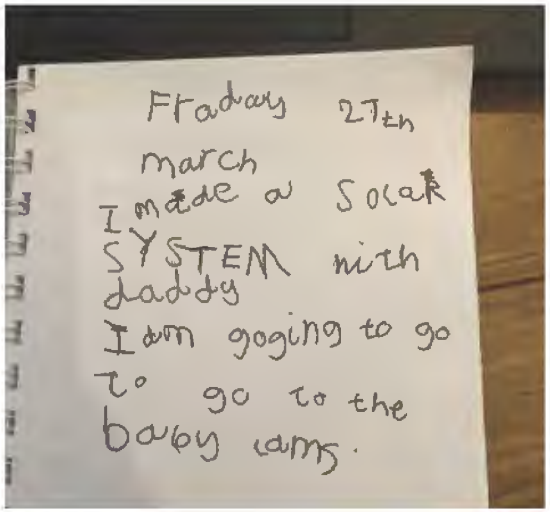
Ethan wants to say hello, he wants to let Miss Palmer know he has built a solar system, he's been baking, painting pebbles as animals, doing lots of maths.



Well done Robyn and Ralph!

Ralph's Easter calculations!

Robyn made a fairy house from card/tissue/paper etc. She cut, stuck and painted all her materials herself.
She was very excited to leave it out overnight to see if fairies visited. Lo and behold the fairies had came and left behind a trail of blue glitter!

More fabulous work:

- Well we've done French, exercise workout, made a tuck shop and built a Lego army base! Ethan S mummy x
- Well done Niamh, you have completed level 5 on Lexia! Please find your certificate attached. Keep up the hard work Niamh! - Hi Miss Dodwell. Thank you for my certificate!
- Ezri misses you and coming to school… We have done a couple of exercises like measuring the garden and the age of the trees. He's totally happy writing stories and reading and watching nature/history programs. Thanks for the suggestions so far.

Some lovely parent comments:

- Dear all, I just wanted to say a big thank you to all of you working so hard during this crazy time. You are all so amazing and I couldn't be more grateful to have you looking after my children and keeping them safe. Wishing you all the best! Keep well and safe!

- Dear Mrs Bondonno. As a family, we wanted to thank the school and all of the teachers and staff for their hard work during this crazy time. We are extremely grateful Zara is surrounded by such wonderful caring people. Wishing everyone a safe and well time while we battle this virus. Take care and stay safe

- I didn't want to contribute to filling your inbox last week, when everything was happening so fast, but I now want to take the opportunity to say thank you for all you are doing for the benefit of all the children in the school. It must be so difficult, leading a school and making decisions about such unprecedented matters. Thank you to you and your team for all the continued teaching last week (although we were in isolation from Wednesday!), for all the excellent communication, and for all the action taken to enable the children to continue working at home. You must all be exhausted. And I know you will all be continuing to work hard, even though you are not all in the physical school. You are doing an amazing job! With our thanks and continuing prayers for you. I hope you and the staff all stay well.

- Thank you. So grateful for all the staff soldiering on. Lots of love to everyone at our wonderful school.

- I hope things are going well there. The newsletter was very good and informative, thank you. Thank you for the continued communication and for the work for both the children at school and those at home. It is really appreciated.

More comments from parents:

- Thank you so much it's so nice to get communication from you at this hard time josh is doing excellent with his TT rockstars and homework . He has done some extra work that I created before your work was set so all in all they are both doing very well.

- Thank you so much for the update it is definitely what was needed … He has done some fantastic independent writing and short stories even though one story killed me off in it, it was great to read ! :-) I hope you have been okay too and looking after yourself. We look forward to receiving more updates from you to keep them keen, as you know mine love a bit of friendly competition! So thank you

- Thank you so much for all your support. We appreciate everything you are doing as well! The adjustments can't have been the least easy for you and we understand that as we are out there doing similar! Thank you so much. Kind regards and best wishes!

Thank you to all!

This is a challenging time in the world and our children, parents and staff have all been so supportive of each other. You are all doing a wonderful job, whether at home, or at school and I am so proud to lead such a wonderful school.

Please continue to send work and messages in, it is lovely to keep in touch about what is going on while we are not together. I will continue to keep you updated as much as possible.

Please look after each other, stay safe and keep washing your hands!

With best wishes, Mrs Bondonno and all of Handcross Primary School
